The project for O Farnel's restaurant has brought us into an innovative challenge: find a new meeting point between the traditional aim of Portuguese culture and the innovative cuisine of the restaurant.

The range of colors is inspired by the shades of the region's glazed pottery and its proximity to the sea. Now the restaurant has an innovative character, but at the same time, thanks to the typical ceramics of Lisbon brings with it its traditional spirit.

Il progetto per il ristorante O Farnel ci ha portati ad una sfida innovativa: trovare un punto d'incontro tra la tradizione Portoghese e la moderna cucina de ristorante.

La palette di colori è stata scelta accuratamente per richiamare le tradizioni locali mentre il design contemporaneo catalizza e presenta lo spirito del suo Chef.

At the start of September, The Rolling Stones return to Carnaby Street, the famous street of Soho in the heart of London, where rock and pop were popular in the sixties, at the time of Swinging London. Just in those streets, the band began its blazing career and we design the official store, entirely dedicated to the promotion of the group and its history.

I Rolling Stones tornano a Carnaby Street, la celebre via di Soho nel cuore di Londra, dove erano di casa il rock e il pop negli anni Sessanta, ai tempi della Swinging London. Proprio in quelle strade la band ha iniziato la sua sfolgorante carriera e ora sta per aprire un negozio ufficiale, interamente dedicato alla promozione del gruppo e della sua storia.

The house overlooks the hamlet "Casa Santa", in Erice, sud-est of Sicily. The project frees itself from all boundaries. The grass grows according to the seasons and the hill of Erice relates to the building. The main terrace is on top of the house, away from prying eyes and offering a stunning view.

La casa si affaccia sul borgo "Casa santa" ad Erice in Sicilia. Il progetto si pone l'obiettivo di liberarsi da ogni suo limite e di relazionarsi con la pendenza della collina di Erice. La terrazza principale disegna gli spazi della residenza e regala il panorama siciliano al suo interno.
